Solemnity of Mary, January 1

January 1, a Holy Day of Obligation, signifies the Solemnity of Mary. It is the belief that Mary is the mother of God. The belief comes from the Gospel of Luke. In Luke 1: 31-35, the Angel Gabriel reveals to Mary that she has found favor with God and shall bear a son, whom she will name Jesus. He will be the Son of God, which makes Mary the Mother of God. This is a core belief of the Catholic Church.
