Altar & Rosary Society Fellowship Dinner

The Altar & Rosary Society enjoyed a fellowship dinner hosted by St. Peter and St. Paul Parish in Philipsburg. It is an annual event held in June for all the societies in the area.

The Rosary & Altar Society provides meals for funerals and does community dinners in the winter months at Immaculate Conception. They also provide meals for First Communion and Confirmation. They assist with food for the 21 club, provide pigs in a blanket for Patriots' Day and make pierogies for Spirit Days, Easter and Christmas sales. They also offer a Fall bazaar at Immaculate Conception. The Altar & Rosary Society then provides a donation to the churches to be used as needed. Do you enjoy cooking and helping with events? Join the Rosary & Altar Society! Just contact the parish office to let us know you are interested!

National Needs Collection JULY 20

A combined collection for Catholic Home Mission Appeal &
Black and Indian Home Missions

As members of the universal church, we are called to be the hands and heart of Christ to those in need—across our nation and throughout the world. Each national collection brings the Gospel to life, supporting vital ministries that serve the poor, strengthen the faith, educate future leaders and bring Christ's hope to communities near and far.

Your generosity helps fund evangelization, education, social justice, disaster relief and pastoral care for vulnerable populations—from Black and Native American missions here in the U.S. to rebuilding efforts in Eastern Europe and pastoral care for military families.

Join us in this mission. Your gift saves souls, changes lives and strengthens the church for generations to come.
